Sunday in the month when Father Lilly holds service near Wellington. The committee of the "Official Year Book" of the Church of England states that the amount contributed for 1885 exceeds by about $2,000,000 the sum raised for church purposes in the preceding year. Over eight millions of dollars have been voluntarily contributed in twelve months for the building or restoration of churches and parsonage and the codowment of benefices.

Out of fifty-four theological colleges of Great Britain only thirteen find a place for music in their course of study. In this num ber are representatives of the Roman Catho-lie Church, of the Church of England, of the DRESS GINGHAMS. Scottish Episcopal Church and of the Presbyterian Church. No college of the Independent or Baptist bodies finds a place in the list. Mr. John Spencer Carmen, who has made the inquiry, recommends the consideration of the subject by college committees, and suggests that some less useful subtects might be displaced to make room for

A wonderful step forward has been made for Christianity in China by the voluntary declaration on the part of the government in favor of religious tolerance. The authorities issued proclamations calling on the people to live at peace with Christian missionacles and converts, and explaining that the Christian religion teaches men to do right, and should therefore be respected. The proclamation reminds them that by becoming converts to Christianity they do not cease to be Chinese. "Know, therefore," says one of the proclams. tions, "all men of whatsoever sort or condition that the sole object of establishing chapmembraneous croup, LAURA tion that the sole object of establishing chap-r of Mr. T.
